Hi Charles,

It was nice talking with you on Friday. I had the chance to confer with my Ops. Office Director, and wanted to update you on a few follow up items regarding AFE.

You may have heard by now from Fran that village travel is not feasible for next Thursday. Dianne Soderlund, Operations Office Director, is the point person to contact if you have any village travel-related questions, and can be reached at 907-271-3425.

Per your request on behalf of Betsy to create a listening session, I combed through the agenda to find possible opportunities to create space for a sw talking circle similar to what we had for Mathy a few years back. Unfortunately, I just could not get space at this late date. We already have 9 sessions running concurrently at that time period. I apologize.

There will be other pertinent sessions on the topic, where you and/or Betsy would be able to get a good sense of the rural issues. Below I have listed a some sessions that might be of interest during your visit:

- TUE 2/4 9-10:15 Statewide Marine Debris Updates
- TUE 10:30-11:45 How to Talk with your Community about Wood Smoke Risks
- TUE 3:30-4:45 Integrating Traditional Knowledge, Faith and Science for a Thriving Environment and Community
- WED 2/5 9-10:15 Shipping out Potentially Hazardous and Potentially Harmful Materials from Rural Alaska – Success Stories
- WED 2-3:15 Beyond Indian General Assistance Program: Moving From Capacity Building to Implementation
- THUR 2/6 9 -10:15 Problems and Solutions for Dust on Village Roads
- THUR 2-315 Disposal Options for Construction and Demolition Waste

- THUR 10:30-11:45 Managing Household Hazardous Waste and RCRA Regulations as they Pertain to Universal Waste and Used Oil

I know a lot of these sessions sound a bit “nuts and bolts,” but these are major issues for Alaska natives, and many will be open format, so the dialog during the sessions will be valuable.

I have attached a print proof copy of the agenda, which is true to our conference program. Please do not follow the on line agenda. The editor has not had the chance to get it updated yet. Lastly, regarding registration for the conference, you can visit <http://www.akforum.org>. Please let me know if you have any issues with registration, and I will put you in contact with the appropriate person.

I look forward to seeing you during the Alaska Forum.

Best,

-Santina
